

Declaration of Intention
“Honesty in Administration and Against Corruption”

On behalf of the Excise Department Executive, I would like to make the following declaration of intention to give my loyalty to our nation, religion and the king. I shall conduct myself as an honest, transparent, moral and ethical person, adhering to the principle of good governance in administration and operation to accomplish desired goals in accordance with the responsible role at full capacity, living an honorable life and upholding the dignity of a civil servant, not taking the use of position for other benefits. I shall also ensure that the personnel of the Excise Department perform their tasks diligently, honestly, with transparency and morals, uphold the value of righteousness. Together we shall insist firmly against corruption including all form of bribery in order to maximize the benefits of the nation and the people.
